BeyondSkool aims to empower schools with holistic and future-ready education solutions.

Skill education company, BeyondSkool, has launched the Education Leaders of India (ELI) initiative with the aim to enhance the proficiency of students in critical thinking, communication, entrepreneurship and technology. ELI aims to provide a platform for principals and owners to build a network for holistic development and create opportunities for rewards and recognitions for their students.

The programme kick-started with a conference and Ed-Talk – 'Catering to Alpha Generation – how are schools adapting to it.' The session saw participation of over 50 school leaders from renowned Market Data institutions in the city. The discussion facilitated a collaborative platform where educational thought leaders can share insights and best practices in adapting education to the needs of the Alpha Generation.

The chief guests for the afternoon were on air presenter for Radio One, 94.3 FM, RJ Tarun and S.S. Deshmukh, chairman, the Vidya Group of Schools. The speakers included Siddharth Rajgarhai, chief learner and director – DPS Varanasi, Nashik, Lava Nagpur, Hinjewadi Pune; Zeenat Shaikh, principal, MSB Educational Institute; Kanika Anand, principal, Arise International School, Ravet; Sonali Balwatkar, principal, Akshara International School; Mrudula Mahajan, vice principal, Akshara International School; Bhavana Narsingoj, principal, Symbiosis Jr. College; Ram Raina,
