India’s largest full-home only interior design brand, Bonito Designs unveiled a spectacular design gallery at their experiential centers in Mumbai and Bangalore. The exclusive showcase revealed, never seen before designs by Gauri Khan and Manish Malhotra curated theme from the ongoing World Designs campaign – Cairo contemporary, Miami Maximalist, Hawaiian tropical, Jaipur Haat fusion and many more. The collaboration between Bonito Designs and the celebrated designers resulted in a stunning convergence of timeless elegance and contemporary vision. The design gallery provided visitors with a firsthand experience of the unparalleled brilliance that arises when art, creativity meets functionality.

Each design presented at the gallery reflected Bonito Designs' dedication to transforming spaces into personalized sanctuaries that seamlessly combine comfort and style. London Rustic Vintage captivated attendees with its harmonious blend of classic charm and rustic aesthetics. Miami Maximalist embraced the vibrant spirit of its namesake city, incorporating bold colors and clean lines for a fresh, energetic vibe.

The designs showcased in the gallery reflected the dedication of Gauri Khan and Manish Malhotra along with Bonito Designs to elevate the aesthetics of homes, providing a personalized touch to every space. Visitors explored and experienced the beauty of these designs firsthand, gaining insights into the creative process and the thought behind each masterpiece.

Speaking on the design gallery showcase, Gauri Khan said, "Collaborating with Bonito Designs has been a fantastic experience, and the design gallery is a testament to our shared commitment to redefine modern living spaces. All the designs showcased at the design gallery encapsulate our creative journey, offering homeowners a unique blend of classic charm, vibrant energy, industrial chic, and timeless sophistication."
